

Alvester "LiL Bud" Holloman

June 8, 1934 - March 12, 2021

Mr. Alvester Holloman (86) the son of the late Otis Lee and Emma Urquhart departed his earthly life on March 12, 2021 at Accordius at Creekside in Ahoskie, NC. "LiL Bud" as he was affectionately called by many received his early education in the public schools of Hertford County. He was unable to attend school for long, due to having to work on the farm with his dad and siblings. He worked on the farm for some years before enlisting in the United States Army for a short tour. Once discharged from the army he worked at the Plymouth Dealership as a mechanic.

Mr. Holloman had no biological children but claimed a host of nieces and nephews as his own.

He was preceded in death by his parents, two wives; Fannie Mae Holloman and Rebecca Holloman and four siblings.

Left to cherish his memories are nieces and nephews, Janice, Ricky, Craig and Paula; a host of great nieces and great nephews; other relatives and friends.
