

Arthur James

July 6, 1917 - September 15, 2013

Arthur James, was born in Philadelphia July 6, 1917 to King James and Julia Hall James. He spent his childhood in North Carolina. He left the Newport News Shipyard to enroll in the Army for World War II. After that he married Mary Lewis, May 30, 1944. This union produced 4 children: sons, Arthur Douglas James, Locust Grove, Virginia, Benjamin James, Ahoskie, North Carolina, daughters, Phyliss Dianne James, Ahoskie, North Carolina, Kay James, Cornelius, North Carolina.

Arthur was widely known as a skilled carpenter, expert hunter, trapper and fisherman. People enjoyed listening to Arthur tell about his life and others in the community. This is what they will miss most about him.

He is survived by his children, Arthur Douglas James, Benjamin James, Phyliss Dianne James, Kay James, two sisters, Ruth Hough, Baltimore, Maryland, Eunice Buck, Glen Burnie, Maryland; one brother, Richard James, Realto, California; one grandson, Sean James, Ahoskie, North Carolina; three granddaughters, Odetta James-Harlee, York, Pennsylvania, Faheemah James, Fredericksburg, Virginia and Berri Flood, Cornelius, North Carolina; one great granddaughter, Meghan Harlee, York, Pennsylvania.
