“ Lue, Shonta and Kevin,

No one hears the doors that open, when they pass beyond our call, but softly as the dropping petals of a rose, one by one our loved ones fall. But the memory of each loved one, like the fragrance of the rose, God sends to linger with us till our own life's door shall close.

It was a rare privilege to have worked with Barry, and to have met such a kind, true and honest person.

Although I was retired, we would talk on the phone at least once or twice a week. Sometimes, I would catch him ordering a sausage biscuit from Hardees, on his way to an in-person-contact. He loved those biscuits. During our conversations, he would talk about his family, and you could tell how much he loved you all. He also was looking forward to retirement in a few years.

God called Barry to dwell with him, so don't lose the tie that binded you all together. Just find comfort in the thought that he is a guardian angel keeping watch over you all.

I ask God to comfort and bless you, and the thousand sweet memories of your loved one will hold fast.

Your loved one is not dead, but promoted.

*May God Bless,
Lynda Winston*

“ *My sincere condolences to the family. My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time.
Barry and I grew up together, played together, went to elementary school together and high school too. We are family, cousins. We went to college together too. As happens in life, we didn't get to see each other too much after that. He was always in my heart and mind though. I will miss him and his smile. Rest in peace, Barry.*

“ I was blessed to be a co-worker and teammate of a great guy. I met him soon after we brought the 21st Century group into the Farmers Family. Though we lived about 4 hrs apart, we talked on the phone regularly about numerous topics, not just work. I came to know Barry as a faithful believer in God, a dedicated family man and a caring friend.

It used to make me laugh when Barry would send me a message asking if he could call because he wanted to discuss how to handle a particular claim issue. I knew he would ask me what I thought about the issue, but I don't think I ever offered him a better solution to the issue than the one he had already thought of!

I say this because Barry and I talked about his retirement and plans for the future several times in the last year. He told me recently he was going to continue to work because of the financial differences between retiring right away and waiting. As usual, I stated, buddy, if I were you i would retire now and was met with his debate on the subject.

I thought back on this when informed of his passing. not lamenting what could have been, but realizing that Barry fought the fight for over 9 days after falling ill. It was then I realized that he was likely having a spirited debate with the Lord regarding the fact that Barry needed to get back to his family, work for 3 more years and retire. Barry's plan was a good plan and he was convinced of it. I think early Monday morning God showed Barry the Kingdom of Heaven, told him He would take care of his family and keep them safe, and Barry accepted God's perfect plan.

He will be greatly missed. I find strength, peace and encouragement knowing Barry is with the Lord. I am also thankful that through our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, I'll one day get to see and talk to Barry again.

“ 1 file added to the album New Album Name

All the pain and grief is over,
Every restless tossing passed.
I am now at peace forever,
Safely home in heaven at last.
There is still work waiting for you,
So you must not idly stand.
Do it now, while life remaineth,
You shall rest in God's own land.

“ Lue, Shonta, Kevin, and family,
My prayers are with you all in this very sad time.
I had the priviledge to work with Barry at Farmers for almost 10 years. I will always remember Barry's smile and the love he had for his family. He loved to tell a story and was just a very special person to everyone that had the honor to know him. He was so proud of his kids and his grandson. He will be missed by so many. I am thankful that I had the opportunity to call him a friend.
Sending you love and prayers-
