

Betty Hendricks Bazemore

March 3, 1937 - September 26, 2013

On September 26, 2013, Betty Bazemore stepped on board the heavenly bound train, and handed the conductor her ticket, then took her seat. The train began to move slowly across the river of Jordan and entered into the gates of Heaven. The train came to a stop and Betty stepped down. As she did this, she saw many family and friends who had passed before her. She waved to them and said "I will chat with later, because I want to see my Savior's face first.

Betty was born March 3, 1937 to the late James Patrick and Sue Jefferson Hendricks.

She was highly respected in her church in her community, on her job, at school where she graduated as valedictorian in 1955 at John B. Bond High School, Lewiston, NC.

She relocated and moved to New York in 1957. A year later she reunited with the love of her life, Cleveland Bazemore and they were married July 12, 1958, a total of 55 years.

She leaves to cherish her lovely memorial her husband Cleveland Bazemore of the home, two sons, Darryl Bazemore (Lisa) of Fairfield, Ohio, Cleveland Derrick Bazemore (Lisa) of Oak Ridge, North Carolina; a step son, James Lee (Linda) of Detroit, Michigan; ten grandchildren, six great grandchildren, two sisters, Myrtle Williams of Hampton, Virginia and Dorothy Berry of Windsor, North Carolina; five sister-in-laws, four brother-in-law; a special friend Louise Thompson and many nieces, nephews, relatives and loved ones.
