

Beulah Simmons Anthony

December 19, 1941 - September 19, 2019

Ms. Beulah Anthony (77) the daughter of the late Robert Manley and Geneva Archer Simmons, peacefully departed her earthly life surrounded by her sons and grandchildren on September 19, 2019. She was born in Hertford County where she received her formal education, graduating from Robert L. Vann High School. Ms. Anthony's spiritual education was nourished at New Ahoskie Baptist Church where she was a member for many years. She retired from Freeman Metal Company as a seamstress.

Left to cherish her loving memories are her three sons, Demitrius Anthony (Jasmine), Eric Anthony (Diedrea) and Ron Anthony (Keisha), ten grandchildren, one sister; Elsie Powell, brother in laws, sister in laws and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Ms. Anthony was preceded in death by her husband; Claude Anthony and five siblings.

“ We will truly miss our sister-in-law, Beulah. We raised our sons together to become wonderful young men, that she was so proud of. We love you, Beulah and will miss you so much, but we know that you are up above watching over us. We are that we were able to be with you in your last hours to pray for you and to tell you how much you are loved.
