“ Sympathy and Love to his family in their time of heartache and grief. May God continue to bless and provide you all with comfort.

I will miss hearing Daryl's signature greeting to me of Hey Nee Nee, what's up girl! Daryl was a great friend and caring person and we shared many memorable outings as teenagers (hanging out at Pizza Inn, and in the McDonalds parking lot after football games) which today's kids would laugh about. It was a fun time of jokes and laughter. I am truly grateful that he and Trina endured the Highway 95 traffic last month and came to Alexandria, VA, that trip was meant to be. Rest in Peace My Friend!

Peace and Love Always,

“ Mrs. White, I am so sorry to hear about Daryl passing. I met Daryl some years ago at the ACC when I worked in Employee Health. Daryl always had me laughing, he and Ra.y When they came to their apts. Daryl because he was terrified of needles would be a neverous wreck. He would come in neverous talking bout he did not sleep the night before and how he kept you up all night No matter how much we talked to him we could not calm him down.. He was always a joy to be around when he came for his apt. Again my heart goes out to you and the family. RIP Daryl.
