

Emma Mizelle

April 2, 1956 - April 6, 2020

Ms. Emma Mizelle (64) entered eternal rest on April 6, 2020 at Wake Med Hospital in Raleigh, NC. She was the daughter of the late John Benjamin Mizelle and Jannie Hoggard Mizelle. She received her formal education in the public schools of Bertie County, where she graduated from Bertie High School. At an early age, Emma joined and received her spiritual education at Piney Wood Chapel Missionary Baptist Church in Ahoskie, NC. Emma worked for Perdue Farms, in Lewiston, NC as a deboner until her health failed her. As her health declined, Emma migrated in 2012 to Raleigh, NC to live and be cared for by her only child.

Left to cherish her loving memories are one daughter, Chanda Mizelle (Bria); two brothers, Joseph Mizelle (Gloria Faye) of Ahoskie, NC and Alvin Mizelle (Teresa) of Raleigh, NC; one aunt, Mildred Harrell of Ahoskie, NC; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Preceding her in death were her parents and two siblings; John Mizelle Jr. and James Mizelle.

“ I met Ms Mizelle at WakeMed Rehab. She was my patient and told me that she loved to go fishing! Well, I did not love to fish but it was my job to meet my patient's needs. So I took her fishing and Chanda came along with us. She did amazing from her wheelchair level but when it was my turn to take the fish off the hook, it was attached to the fish eye. I asked Ms Emma to do it but she said it was my turn. So as I was taking the hook out, I eye ball moved and I throw the fish on the ground and ran. She yelled and asked me, Portia, where are you going? I said "I don't know"!! We laughed and laughed! I will always remember her laughter and her smile!
