

Fannie Lura Powell

January 28, 1923 - November 6, 2016

Fannie Lura Powell (93) a native of Bertie County, peacefully departed this life on November 6, 2016 at Three Rivers Health and Rehabilitation Center in Windsor, NC. She was the youngest child born to the late Thomas R. Powell and Edna Clara Moore. She was educated in the Bertie County School System and graduated from C. G. White School.

Fannie was a loving, kind and sweet spirited woman with an infectious smile that drew many to her. She had a strong faith and knew what prayer would do. She was a life long member of First Baptist Kelford, where she remained faithful until her health failed.

Left to cherish precious memories are her daughter, Belinda White and son-in-law, William White; her grandson, Justin White; a special granddaughter, Letitia Harris and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Preceding her in death were her siblings; Floretta Powell Horton, Joseph Powell, Symera Powell Anderson and Vancy Lee Powell.
