

Florence "Mrs Poochie" Herman Moore

February 15, 1943 - August 21, 2018

Mrs. Florence Moore (75), affectionately called "Mrs. Poochie" by many, entered eternal rest on August 21, 2018 at her home in Ahoskie, NC. She was the daughter of the late James Thomas and Florence Riddick Herman and the widow of Paul Richard Moore, Sr.

Mrs. Moore was a humble, kind hearted women who was full of wisdom. She found great joy in sharing her wisdom with family, friends and anyone in need of it. Mrs. "Poochie" had a passion for taking care of children, being labeled as the neighborhood child care provider. You could always find children somewhere in her midst. Her grandchildren, Deanna, Andrea and Makenzie were the sparkles in her eyes. She spoiled each of them with nurturing love and care. Mrs. Moore was a member of New Ahoskie Baptist Church where she loved serving the LORD, as long as her health would allow. She truly exhibited her love for Christ through her caring disposition.

Left to treasure her loving memories are her three sons, Rev. Paul Moore, Jr. (Audrey), John Moore and Gerald Moore (Kathy) all of Ahoskie, NC; three grandchildren, Deanna Moore, Andrea Moore and Makenzie Moore; niece, Patricia Vaughan (whom she raised as a daughter); two god daughters, Garnetta Weaver (Albert) and Doris Harmon both of Ahoskie, NC; one brother, Worley Herman of Bronx, New York; one sister- in -Law, Bernice Herman of Patterson, NJ and a host of other relatives and friends. She was preceded in death by one son, Terrance Moore.

“ We will always remember the fun and laughter we shared many years ago in Ahoskie! We were your neighbors on Catherine Creek Road and moved to New Jersey in the 70s. However, we never forgot home and the people such as the Moores. Your mother was a lovely lady and we rejoice knowing that she lives in the presence of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!
