

Isaiah Rontez Perry

March 9, 1984 - October 27, 2013

Isaiah truly was a unique person. His life here was short but very memorable. Isaiah was loved and irritating to us all, he was an out spoken young man, everyone he touched or spoken to knew this. But he also had a strong and lovable heart. Isaiah was a true soldier he held on to life as long as he could, but when the father told him its time, he did not question he just held out his hand and said I am ready.

Isaiah Rontez Perry was born on March 9, 1984 in Ahoskie, N.C. He was preceded in death with his maternal grandparents Raleigh and Carrie Perry, Paternal grandparents Joe and Essie Moore, Nephew Jeremiah Perry Jr., and his Aunt Cynthia Denise Brooks. Isaiah leaves to cherish his memories his father and mother James and Sharon Hurdle of Newport News Va., his grandparents Donnell and Barbara Thornton of Shiloh, N.C. He leaves three brothers; Jeremiah Perry Sr. (Denise) of Newport News, VA., Timothy Edwards (LaToyia) of Smithfield, VA., James Hurdle Jr. (Helen) of Newport News VA. He leaves five sisters Carletta Edwards, Sierra Hurdle, and Deanna Horton all of Newport News VA., LaStardea Hassel, and Kenisha Wilson both of N.C. His biological father James Moore and his maternal Great Grandmother Edward Pashion Brown of Ahoskie, N.C. and four nephews and eight nieces. Host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends. Isaiah also leaves to cherish his memories his two best friends Rontrale Edwards, and Kerry Horton, both of Newport News.
