

Jay Yancy Jones

May 1, 1969 - January 11, 2018

Jay Jones (48) transitioned from this life on January 11, 2018 at Wake Medical Center in Raleigh, NC. He was the son of Sandra Morris Jones and the late Adron B. Jones Jr. Jay loved his family and friends. As a matter of fact, it was often said of him that he never met a stranger. He lived his life to the fullest and was especially fond of cooking, playing cards with friends and family, and his beloved Pittsburgh Steelers. Jay was a 1987 graduate of Murfreesboro High School.

Left to cherish his memories are his mother, Sandra Morris Jones of Tarboro, NC; son, Jayson Jones; daughters, Jakecia Jones and Jasmyn Jones; granddaughter, Emonii Harrell; sister, Jan Jones and a host of other relatives and friends.

 People who will be attending his service are invited (but not demanded) to wear something black and gold to the service in honor of Jay's deep affection for the Steelers.

“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of my cousin Jay. For me he was surely one of the easiest guys to get along with. I mostly remember him and my brother's filling up on my mom's fried chicken before going out to play basketball or go skating. I was too young to tag along but whenever "Jay and the guys" came around there was definitely excitement in the air. He will be deeply missed by all who knew him. Much love to cousin Sandra at this difficult time. My prayers are with you. Love, Teisha Council-Gray and family

“ I'll never forget how "Yancey"(as we would call him to pick on him) was in my kitchen with Derek Weaver and they were teasing my mother. Both of them LOVED teasing her abd this particular day she wasn't having it When Jay persisted momma proceeded to break the broom on those 2. Man, the 3 of us... my heart aches

*With deepest sympathy - Fear though not; for I am with thee:
be not dismayed; for I am thy God:
I will strengthen thee;
yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.
