

Kelly Saunders

December 7, 1927 - January 31, 2021

Mr. Kelly Saunders (93) the son of the late Vassie Riddick and Elizabeth Saunders entered eternal rest on January 31, 2021 at his residence in Powellsville, NC. He was a native of Hertford County where he was raised and attended the public schools. At an early age he joined Elm Grove Missionary Baptist Church, where he remained a member until his marriage. After his marriage he joined Piney Wood Chapel Missionary Baptist Church to fellowship with his wife. Mr. Saunders' work career consisted of working for the Bertie County Sheriff's Dept. until his retirement. He also worked as a farmer, raised Perdue chickens and raised hogs. His hobbies consisted of fishing, hunting, dancing, and watching television; especially Westerns, Mysteries and he even loved the soap operas. He was known for asking his wife in the mornings to "Find the man who is giving away money (Let's Make A Deal)".

Mr. Saunders loved his family dearly, always making sure they had what was needed.

He will be missed by his wife of 76 years, Ola Mae Taylor Saunders of the home; grandchildren, Willie Levi Taylor Jr. (Gwendolyn) of Durham, NC, Kelly James Taylor of Powellsville, NC, Jeremy Lamont Taylor (Tamara) of Severn, Maryland; foster son, Shelly A. Askew (Hattie) of Powellsville, NC; daughter in law, Margie Taylor of Powellsville, NC; great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. Preceding him in death were his parents, a son, Willie Levi Taylor and granddaughter, Anastasia Drake.

“ We knew him as "Mr. Kelly". Bright smile.
Wearing khaki fatigues. Driving big farm equipment. Talking in the backyard with our daddy, J.T. A dependable family friend. May the Peace of our Lord rest upon the Saunders Family.

*The love of Miss Ola Mae.
May the Peace of the Lord be upon the Saunders Family.*

“ He was a funny uncle who always had something for you to do. But watching western movies and turning the screen dark;
so it would look like night time.
