

Lorraine Cooper

January 15, 1952 - February 24, 2014

Lorraine Cooper, departed this life at the age of 60 to her eternal resting place on Sunday, February 23, 2014 at Creekside Care in Ahoskie, North Carolina.

Lorraine was loving and affectionate to everyone. She loved her dolls and teddy bears. She loved and care for them like her children. She loved dressing her dolls with clothes and jewelry. She loved and enjoyed listening to gospel music. The most favorite thing she enjoyed the most was attending family reunions to fellowship with siblings, aunts, uncles and entire family.

She leaves to cherish her memories Lorenzo (Patricia) Cooper of Ahoskie, North Carolina, Ronald (Sylvia) Cooper of Satallite Beach, Florida, Shohida Majrid of New York, New York. A host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends who will miss her dearly.

“ Please accept my condolence on the loss of your loved one. The loss of a loved one makes us appreciate how precious life is and certainly our Creator more than anyone else realizes that. Did you know that the Bible, God's Word, offers us the opportunity of being reunited with our loved ones right here on earth under paradisiac conditions? Jesus promised that "those in the memorial tombs will come out" [John 5:28,29] What a beautiful hope to look forward to. Jesus demonstrated his ability to raise the dead by resurrecting Lazarus and others. This promised future includes perfect health and everlasting life for obedient humans. The Bible also reveals the condition on earth at the time of the resurrection at Revelation 21:3, 4. Can we put our trust in these promises? Yes, because Almighty God, Jehovah, cannot lie. [Heb. 6:18] Please review these scriptures in your Bible and I hope they have brought you and your family some comfort. You may also find answers to your Bible questions at www.jw.org. Sincerely,
