

Mary Wynn Swain

July 2, 1926 - December 9, 2024

Ms. Mary Wynn Swain (98) was born July 02, 1926, to the parentage of the late William and Sallie Ann Chamblee. She peacefully entered eternal rest on December 09, 2024, at Rich Square Health Care in Rich Square, NC.

Mary was raised in Harrellsville, NC where she received her spiritual education and growth at Mount Pleasant Missionary Baptist Church. She was active in the choir and kitchen ministries as long as her health allowed.

Mary received her formal education in the public schools of Hertford County.

She was a member of the Order of Eastern Stars and a very active member of the NAACP where she was the mother of the year for 26 years.

Mary was a very stylist dresser who was known for her many hats, she enjoyed shopping, cooking (especially baking) and loved traveling.

Mary was a devoted wife and mother, whose commitment to her family was unwavering. She found joy pouring into her children. Left to cherish those loving memories of her are her children, Percy R. Swain, Johnnie M. Swain, William Leon Swain, Carroll H. Swain, Mary Kimberly Howard. Willie J. Swain and Chebita A. Swain, grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends. Preceding her in death were her parents, husband William Percy Swain and daughter, Sallie Swain Moore.

Mary was my friend and was in my choir. She was a vivacious person committed to the Lord and the beautification of her environment. She overcame many obstacles and propelled herself through life and its events. Always stunning she was civic and extended her friendliness to many. I will miss our many rides from church and dinners. She was mother of the year as recognized by the NAACP for many decades. Dr. Melvin C. Lawrence
