

Odell Reynolds Robinson

February 17, 1924 - March 30, 2021

On Tuesday March 30, 2021, God put his loving arms around Odell Reynolds Robinson (97) and gently lifted her soul from this world of suffering, pain and sorrow to a place of eternal peace. She was the daughter of the late Brode and Eular Manley Reynolds. Odell's early education was received in the public schools of Hertford County (Robert L. Vann). After high school she attended McAllister Institute of Funeral Service in New York. Completing and graduating from mortuary science school started her life long career as a embalmer and funeral director at Reynolds Funeral Home in Ahoskie, NC, which was the business her father started for his family in 1926. Odell not only embalmed for her family business but for several other funeral homes in Eastern North Carolina. She was a faithful member of New Ahoskie Missionary Baptist Church where she was known as one of the "Golden Girls" and where she served as a trustee until her health begin to fail.

Left to cherish her memories are one daughter, JoAnn Weaver Vann of the home; two grandchildren, Maurice Vann (Iulia) of Greensboro, NC and Kristin Vann of Charlotte, NC; nine great grandchildren; Reynolds Funeral Home Family; a host of other relatives and friends. Preceding her in death were her parents; husband, Raymond Robinson; one grandson, Larry "Cutt" Vann and her siblings.

SERVICES WILL BE LIVE STREAMED THRU REYNOLDS FUNERAL HOME

“Condolences to Joanne and Family. Last night, I was informed of Aunt Odell’s passing and immediately sent up a prayer while smiling as I remembered her loving encouraging words, warm embraces, kind acts and even necessary chastisements (smile). She was a CLASS ACT, Joann. You laid her to rest IN STYLE. Your Mom’s spirit must have been gleefully clapping and exclaiming, “That’s my girl.” After viewing the funeral, I now know why I have been singing “Peace in the Valley” all week (before I was informed of Aunt Odell’s passing). It was sung at the funeral of someone I loved dearly and affectionately called Aunt Odell. Love and blessings, Brenda Lewis-Flowers

“ Just watched the home going service for Odell- truly a queen! Her years of service to the community, and the many families and friends she gave love and comfort in times of grief and sorrow, is to be honored. Not only was she beautiful on the outside, but the kindness of her sweet spirit and the glow of her smile will be cherished. Odell~ Thanks for the memories. ❤️ Florence Eaton White and children

“ Just watched the Homegoing Service for Ms. Odell. Having lived across the street from Reynolds Funeral Home for nearly 70 years, we can truly say that all those connected with that establishment were good people. Ms. Odell was always a joy to be around. Although we no longer live on Maple Street, we have many treasured memories of those times. Rest In Peace Ms. Odell. We thank God for your long and well lived life. Joyce, Charlesetta, and Viola
