

Rebecca Holloman

August 23, 1929 - August 8, 2013

Rebecca Speller Holloman (Bec), was born August 23, 1929 in Bertie County, NC.
Her life ended peacefully on August 8, 2013 with her loving husband by her side.

Rebecca attended the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah Witnesses and dedicated her life to Jehovah symbolizing it by water baptism in 2005. She remained faithful in her service from that point on and took great joy and pleasure participating in the house to house ministry, spreading the good news and speaking to others about her beliefs as long as she was able to do so.

Rebecca dearly loved her husband and was a wonderful homemaker.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her husband Alvester Holloman, her son, Herman (Shirley) Moore of Norfolk, VA and a sister-in-law, Mamie Hall, a host of nieces and nephews and friends.

She was always cheerful and a joy to be around, we look forward to seeing her again in the resurrection.
