“ Richard was the kindest person I have encountered. He was caring, helpful, and respectful. He became a chosen member of our family and he will be missed but never gotten. We know he will always be with us, unseen, unheard, but always near.

It is not how long a man lives, but how deep that life is. Richard told our family how much his life has been enriched by getting to know the family. Our lives were equally enriched and we will miss our "little buddy".
