“ We are all so sorry for the loss for Larry's passing, but remember he may be gown physical, but he is sitting at the right hand of his father's, he heavenly father and his father by the choice of God. I have known Larry and all his family for many, many years. He was always liked and a joy to be around. To Mrs. Harrell, William, Amanda, Eddie, Teresa, Gail and Michelle, please know that I am deeply sorry for your loss, please know it is okay to morn, cry, get mad, ask questions. God want mind, with seekting and turning to him you will find more strength, piece and understanding. I can't even imagine that pain you are all in so i what even try, just know that Larry was liked and loved, many blood and others not if you were Larry Harrell's friend that was something special. Now, Larry go rest high on that mountain!!! God will look out for and take care of all the loved one's left behind. You all are in our thoughts and prayer,
